“ I am grateful that I was blessed to know this wonderful woman for 37 years. I was loved and supported and treated as family even when she didn't have to. To be loved by Aggie was a gift I will treasure forever. I am grateful that she has become an angel that will continue to watch over us all forever. Aggie was a god fearing woman who was equal parts soft and loving and hard as nails when she had to be. I will miss your smile and your sweet voice telling me that I would always be your daughter and you would always love me. I am so lucky to have been able to hug your neck and tell you how much I loved you just a few days before you went to your heavenly home. You will be missed and I will love you forever.
