

Mrs. Amelia Nell Spell-Weaver

September 23, 1940 - February 11, 2026

Mrs. Amelia Nell Spell-Weaver, age 85, passed away on Wednesday, February 11, 2026, in Atmore, Alabama. She was born in McCullough, Alabama, and spent some time living in California before settling in Atmore for the past twenty-three years. Amelia will be remembered for her kindness and the love she shared with her family and friends throughout her life.

She had a deep love for reading and learning, often immersing herself in research that sparked her curiosity. Gardening was another passion of hers; she found joy in tending to her plants, nurturing them with care. Traveling allowed her to explore new places, while spending time with her family brought her the greatest happiness. She enjoyed delving into genealogy, uncovering the stories of her ancestors. A talented cook, she loved preparing meals for her loved ones, and singing brought joy to her heart. With a Bachelor's degree in Music Education from Southern Mississippi, she spent many years playing the piano at her church, sharing her love of music with her community.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Carl and Nellie Voncille Weaver Reynolds.

She is survived by her husband of forty-three years, Winfred W. Weaver of Atmore, Alabama; sons, Damon Spell (Gabriel) of Tampa, Florida and Michael

Anthony Weavor of Fresno, California; daughters, Sonja Elise Spell (Jack Rentfro) of Knoxville, Tennessee, Lisa Marie Ville of Tucson, Arizona, Tina Leann Guevarra of San Luis Obispo, California and Cindy Renee Hagemann of Oak Dale, California; brother, Lee Reynolds of Atmore, Alabama; nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

MA

“ Monica Agerton lit a candle in memory of Mrs. Amelia Nell Spell-Weaver

---

Monica Agerton - February 19 at 03:19 PM