“ I knew Mrs. Anita from my high school years with her beautiful daughter, Tammy, as one of my truest friends. Mrs. Anita was fun loving, easy to know, caring, and always kind. She was one of my favorite friend moms. She always made us smile. It broke my heart to read of her passing, but there is no doubt where this sweet soul resides now. Prayers, love, and good memory thoughts toward her sweet family~Signed Angela Chancery Lee

“ While it grieves me that I cannot be there for my family I am so glad I got to stop by for a visit with Aunt Nita when we were there just a few days ago. She was sleeping and I started to just leave but my wife insisted that we wake her. Boy, Nita was ready to give me the backhand when she found out I was about to leave without talking to her. I'm glad we had those precious moments together and ended with an opportunity for me to pray with her just one more time. She is in a better place and completely healed. I cannot grieve because she is better off than me. I pray for the family left behind that God will be near and dear to each of you and fill your hearts as only He can.

Lovingly & Sincerely,
Norman
