

Mrs. Ann Mixon

February 9, 1946 - February 22, 2025

Mrs. Ann Mixon, who was 79 years old, passed away on February 22, 2025, at her home in Perdido, Alabama. She grew up in Dyas, Alabama, and spent most of her life in Bay Minette and Perdido. Mrs. Mixon was a cherished member of the House of Prayer, where she found community and support throughout her life. Her warm spirit and love for those around her will be remembered by all who knew her.

She loved to spend her time fishing by the calm waters, where she found peace and joy. When she wasn't by the lake, you could find her happily solving crossword puzzles, filling in the squares with words that made her smile. Gardening was another passion of hers; she would spend countless hours tending to her flowers, nurturing them as they bloomed with vibrant colors. Each petal and leaf brought her a sense of accomplishment and comfort, making her garden a little piece of paradise.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Henry "Ted" (Dorothy Weekley Wilson) Andrews; husband, Charles Mixon Sr.; son, DeWayne Whatley; sister, Bonnie Andrews Whatley; great-grandchild, Elizabeth Joylynn.

Mrs. Mixon is survived by her daughter, Tammy (William) Harrelson of Perdido, Alabama; son, Steven Whatley of Daphne, Alabama; two brothers, Billy Andrews of Jacksonville, Florida, and Benjamin Andrews of Jacksonville, Florida; sister, Brenda Cox of Jacksonville, Florida; seven grand-children, April Hicks, Christopher Hicks, Jessie Turner, Dalton Whatley Teddy Whatley, Megan Middleton, Garrett Harrelson and Kendra Harrelson; Ten great-grandchildren, Arianna Daniels, Jasamine Daniels, Zackary Hicks, Kaleb Hicks, Makayla Hicks, Tabitha Brown, Peyton Brown, Devanee Middleton, Kolson Hubbard, Levi Brown, Anna Louise Hicks, and Marina Hicks ; 2 great-great grandchildren, Kamdyn Brown and Kingstyn McCall.
