“ Probably my favorite memory of Uncle Barney is when we were visiting when I was really young, we were his & Aunt Irene’s house. He made homemade peach ice cream & there were tons of family there. I also remember when he & I had a good conversation & he told me that farming was his love.

“ I was blessed to have had Barney as a brother-in-law. He seemed to always have a smile on his face for everyone he knew. He suffers no more and will be watching and awaiting his lovely wife Irene and beautiful children and grandchildren to be with him one day. Rest in Peace Barney. You are truly loved and will be missed by so many.
