

Mr Charles Marion Cooper

August 19, 1963 - August 1, 2025

Mr. Charles Marion Cooper, who was 61 years old, passed away on Friday, August 1, 2025, in Atmore, Alabama. He was born in Pensacola, Florida, but spent most of his life in Bratt, Florida. Mr. Cooper was a valued member of the Bratt First Baptist Church, where he brought joy and support to his community. His presence will be missed by all who knew him.

He had a vibrant personality that lit up every room, he was a beloved figure in the community, known for his infectious enthusiasm for life. An avid Alabama football fan, he spent countless weekends cheering on his favorite team at games, often surrounded by friends and family who cherished his spirited nature. His grandchildren were the brightest part of his life, bringing him endless joy and happiness. He loved spending time with them, whether it was playing games, telling stories, or just enjoying a quiet moment together. Beyond the thrill of sports, he was a dedicated prankster who could always be counted on for a good laugh. His love for helping others shone through in his community work—whether it was lending a hand with yard work or providing meals for those in need. For many years, he worked at Cooper Grocery Store, where he not only delivered fresh produce to local stores but also created lasting friendships, as he never met a stranger. Passionate about connecting with others, he traveled across the region offering payment solutions to local businesses, always emphasizing the importance of community and connection in all he did.

Mr. Cooper is preceded in death by his parents, Lawrence and Doris Troutman Cooper; son, Bryant "Coop" Cooper; brother, Carl Cooper.

He is survived by his loving wife, Dianne Cooper of Bratt, Florida; son, Austin (Lorri) Cooper of Bratt, Florida; step-daughter, Kayla Kresta of Bratt, Florida; sister, Judy (Robert) Gilmore of Pensacola, Florida; three grandchildren, Ella Chason, Lakelyn Chason and Ava Jane Cooper; numerous cousins.
