“ I will miss my sweet cousin
My last visit with her we were up until 2 am, laughing, watching the Atlanta braves, she was so proud of her children grandkids and family
Edward, and family I will keep you in my prayers.

“ I have know Charlotte for the better part of 50 years. Her husband Edward was raised in tthe community with my husband. I worked with her, our kids went to school toget and played ball together. She was a very sweet and loving lady. She and Ed went fishing with my husband and I one day and the fish literly were jumping over the boat and sometimes landing in it. She will be missed. Love and prayers to the family.
