“ I remember every Sunday and Wednesday at church we would give each other this big hug, and if I didn't hug him he would call me out on it. I am gonna miss giving you big hugs and I'm gonna miss you in general. ❤️ Until we meet again ❤️

“ I remember David telling me a story about buying some Diamonds for his wife that she had always wanted. He was so excited and happy to be able to do this, his compassion was there for all to see. I never really spent that much time with David, but what time I did spend around him it was easy to see what a stand up down to earth person he was. My deepest sympathy to his family and to all of his friends.

“ David and I were classmates from elementary school until we graduated. We also worked together at Diamond Oil back in high school. Our paths never crossed much after school, but it was always a pleasure when we did. He was a very genuine guy that will surely be missed.
