

Mrs. Doris Rose Boutwell

May 18, 1924 - February 25, 2022

Mrs. Doris Rose Boutwell, age 97, passed away Friday, February 25, 2022 in Pensacola, FL. She has resided in Flomaton, AL; most of her life. She was a member of Gospel Light Temple Church.

To know Doris was to love her. She embodied life to the fullest and remained independent to the very end. She loved her Lord, church and family unconditionally.

Doris was a wonderful mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, cousin, niece, aunt and friend. A social butterfly, never meeting a stranger. Her passion for quilting, gardening, canning, cooking, and that famous delicious divinity candy were generously shared to all that knew her.

Doris was a hard worker and loved her job. She remained a loyal, dependable employee until the company closed and reluctantly retired in her late 70's.

She often spoke fondly of her parents. One of her most favorite memories as a child was picking cotton along side her father. "She was a daddy's girl", she'd proudly say. She loved to make tomato gravy and biscuits, word cross puzzles, and good company.

Doris was humble, kind, meek, generous, forgiving, loving, patient, strong-willed, stubborn, tough as nails, independent, one of a kind “Beautiful Soul”.
