“ My mother was such an amazing woman. Her faith in God showed every day. She never met a stranger. People would talk with her and instantly love her. She had the gift of giving, and volunteering her time. She loved to sew. She was a good seamstress. She sewed a lot of my clothes when I was growing up. She sewed baby quilt for so many babies . If she knew you and you were pregnant, you got a quilt. She like to sew for yard sales to raise money for the church. She loved so cook, even until the end. There is so much to say about my mom. I miss you so much. She is in heaven now and no longer in pain. I love you momma. I will see you again.

“ My aunt Edna was and will always be a light to everyone that knew her, she made the best chicken and dumplings I ever had. She is my great aunt Edna and so thankful I seen her a while back with my brother Adam and his children. She was so surprised. I sat and held her hand and prayed over her as she was in the hospital at that time. I am blessed to have had her in my life. We use to go pick wild blackberries behind the house and make delicious dessert's. Sending all my love to our Emmons family.
