

Ms. Eva Karen McInnis

October 2, 1957 - April 20, 2021

Eva Karen McInnis née Tew, age 63, passed away April 20, 2021, in her hometown Brewton. Born October 2, 1957 (Brewton), she attended TR Miller High School. She went on to study at University of Mobile where she majored in Elementary Education, and in May 1997, she graduated from Faulkner University, Montgomery, Alabama, where she was awarded a Bachelor of Business Administration.

Eva was beautifully vivacious and caught the eye of anyone near. She had an eclectic sense of humor, and was a free spirit, unapologetically. Her family will remember her effervescent, sparkling light and her profound ability to love. Eva spent the last years of her life devotedly serving as her mother's caregiver.

Eva is survived by her adored daughter, Ava (Brian) Moore née Gunaca; her grandchildren, Daniel, Alicia, Micah, Noah, and Jonah; her mother, Sammie McGlothren née Hoomes; her siblings, Vicki (Terry) Wilcox, Stephanie (Robert) Spicer; Paul (Rob) Shelley, and Toddy (Roger) Milstead; her loyal dog Rodham (a mixed-breed); eleven nieces and nephews, and many other relatives. She is predeceased by her father, Raymond Grace Tew, Jr.; and her former spouse, Rick Gunaca; and her niece, Jennifer VanAusdal.

Please join us in a celebration of her life on April 28, 2021 at Petty-Eastside
