“ This lady was a grandmother I never had. My grandparents passed before I was even born. Nanna took me under her wing and I cherished her dearly. There is no words that can describe the kind, caring lady she was. She is greatly going to be missed by everyone. She as a pillow in our church, she was the first face you seen on Sunday morning when you opened the door to the church. I love you Nanna. I will see you again soon.
