“ Glynith was such a hoot. She sure loved those grandsons and boys of hers. We shared a few conversations on Facebook on how happy and content she was with her life and sweet husband which I have not met. We met in Denver City, TX for the first time in 1987 and we kept in touch throughout the years. When I got the news from my daughter I was shocked and puzzled, how, why? Lady you will be so missed in so many ways. You have those wings now fly high sweet friend !

“ She was the most loving, giving, sharing, and sassy woman I have every met. I will miss all the fishing trips, sitting on the back porch cooking out, and just being there when I needed her just to talk. God blessed this world and your family with an Angel sent from Heaven to touch everyone's life you came in contact with. Love you always
