The one thing about Boone that sticks out in my mind is how he would run up and down the aisle as the Spirit of God was moving in the church. He would run at the drop of a hat or drop the hat either one. I remember Brother Wallace how he loved to run. I wonder if they're still running since Boone got there. Boone, you will be missed by all who really knew and love you my friend. RIP my Brother, your work is finished. This isn't saying good bye, but I'll be seeing you before long the Lord willing.

“ I remember when we were all younger, going to revivals! You would be filled with the Holy Ghost and take off running, lol. You and Bro. Reid's seemed to have a contest on how high you could shout, and how fast , far, you could run!! I imagine you and him are shouting in the streets of glory, running with the Holy Spirit and dancing with Jesus!! You will be sorely missed! However, all I'll ever think of now, is how brighter heaven has become! Lo ve you Boone!
