“Dave and I are so sorry for the loss of Ms. Mable. She was a special little lady in my heart. We always spoke and our conversations were real and personal. I always enjoyed seeing her smile and laughter. Ms. Martha was usually with her and we all spoke of signs of the times or past family members. She knew me before I ever knew her. She knew my family members and was able to tell me about them. She would laugh or frown depending on who we were talking about. When as an adult, I finally had the pleasure of really getting to know her, my acquaintance and friendship with her was a special addition to my life. I cannot tell you how very much just seeing her will be a void in my life. Neither can I tell you how sorry I am that you have lost this very special lady in all your lives. My heart goes out to you all.
