“ Pat was my first sister-in-law and by far my most loved one. She gave me a wonderful nephew (John Helton) and a beautiful niece (Melissa Miller) for which I love both dearly. Pat had an infectious smile and personality. I love her and will miss her. No one has EVER nor will they EVER take her place. We are only parting for a short time. Then reuniting in Paradise with our Lord and other loved ones. Until then I will continue to love you from here.

“ What I remember most about my mom. Her smile. It had the ability to make you smile and in turn give you a little piece of sunshine. She bought me my first trainset, a hobby I still enjoy. Her nail polish was on a lot of my Hotwheels. Although my life has carried me many places, she was in my thoughts.

Love, your son,
John Robert
