“ Glad I got to pay last respects to Paulie. I think it had been around 47 years since I saw him last. My first year at Alabama Christian College I was rooming with Benjie Nall and Paulie was taking classes at AUM on Mondays and Tuesdays. I don't remember how he knew Benjie and me, but he asked if he could stay in our dorm room on Monday nights with us so he wouldn't have to drive all the way back to Luverne. We would cut up, have some religious discussions and other conversations and occasionally share food if we had any snacks to share. I wish I had caught up with him before now to have some more deep conversations. It was interesting to see that he had finally gotten married, had a family and a successful career. His son delivered an in-depth eulogy which helped me catch up on his history. I hope on behalf of my friend Benjie and myself that you, his family, are comforted in your loss by his love for Jesus and faithfulness. His father I knew well, since he was our work/study boss on campus at ACC. Keith Carrigan
