“ To a little sister. We fought and played just as sisters do. But i will always remember the memories we had growing up. Mom and daddy did a wonderful job raising us. We will forever have you in our hearts. Rest in peace

“ To My Sister
Don't think I've forgotten
Nights we'd lie in bed
Things you'd say to scare me
How I'd hide my head
The arguments were your fault
(I'm sure you know it's true)
I took care of your things like I was supposed to do
So whey when you are far away
Am I lonely and blue or have a special secret
Just have to share with you
It's simply because I need you
Our kind of love won't end
You're that rare and special part of me
My sister and my friend.

This poem was given to me by Paula not long after I married and moved away. I've always kept it on my bedroom wall and today it means more to me than ever. I will always keep you close little sis.
Deeply Loved,
Karen
