“ Growing up in Indiana, I always looked forward to visiting my relatives in Bratt every summer, including my cousin, Reita. We had so much fun as kids playing outside and later as teenagers listening to music and "playing by ear" on the piano - one of Reita's favorites was "I'm a Believer" by the Monkees. She enjoyed her role as church pianist for many years. As adults, we did not have the opportunity to visit as often.

Reita was a sweet, gentle, Christian lady who always had a smile and giggle when we spent time together recently - even as she endured the pain and eventual paralysis of multiple sclerosis. I will miss her, but am comforted that she is in heaven and not in pain any longer. Special thoughts and prayers to other family members - especially Hollis and Donna Sue. Reita was blessed to have you there to support and encourage her.

*Love,
