

Mr. Ronald Clark Roddenberry

December 8, 1967 - June 14, 2024

Mr. Ronald Clark Roddenberry, age 56, passed away, Friday, June 14, 2024, in Atmore, AL. He resided in Milton, FL; most of his life and the past 17 years in Atmore AL. He was a member of Friendly Holiness Church.

Mr. Roddenberry loved spending time with his family and sitting around telling stories of his childhood. In his past-time he enjoyed collecting antiques, he also liked sitting back watching a good western, landscaping and yard work. He was very instrumental and loved helping his wife share the Gospel and Warn people of the End Times through her "Bulletin Alert Ministry", getting this message into over 80 prisons throughout the United States. He was also instrumental in his translating it into Spanish, because he saw where it was needed in the Spanish community in the prisons. He had a big heart for helping people.

He is preceded in death by his father, Jerry Lynn Roddenberry.

He is survived by his mother, Diane Burlison Roddenberry, his loving wife of 35 years, Tonya Roddenberry, of Atmore, AL; two sons, Christopher Roddenberry, of Atmore, AL; Adam (Leanna) Morris, of Pace, FL; one daughter, Awita Morris, of Atmore, AL; one brother, Michael Roddenberry, of Pensacola, FL; one sister, Pam (Johnny) Edlund, of Cantonment, FL; four grandchildren, Christopher Roddenberry, Jr; Logan Morris, Natalie Morris,

Kiley Blankenship, other relatives and friends.
