Timothy K. Tharp - May 10, 2024 at 07:10 AM

Never will forget the times our mother Elizabeth Ann Johnson Tharp youngest daughter of Lois and Nathaniel Johnson took us regularly to Aunt Christine Lowerys home and of course we enjoyed large family reunions in our day and Ray the brother to Roy would be there and we always talked about going fishing, fast cars and fast women and living the dream. Well now that Roy has died and possibly gone on to heaven considering that Aunt Christine almost always took her family to church it's possible that Roy will forever satisfy an eternal dream. Living with The Lord. What a wonderful change and impression he made and his family made on my life. To God be the glory great things he hath done. Will forever love you Roy.
