“ Like so many, my life has been enriched, I am so blessed to have been befriended by Shirley Tew. It was her, her character of Christlikeness that made my life so much better. Her testimony rings the melody of love, for Christ, for her family and for me and for all in the sound of her voice. Her sweet life was reflected in her precious smile and her beautiful voice. Thankfully God blessed us with precious memories to hear her voice and see her smile - so humbly affirming us and so wisely encouraging us. Shirley will continue to be loved because of her generous and patient love for us that is a part of her heritage gifted to us. To love the Lord with her complete being was her life ambition. She sung of her love for Christ, she read and studied the life of Jesus Christ only to be more like Him. What really matter in this life, Shirley knew and in her years she showed us what she really believed.

So humble, compassionate and content in all of life's joys and sorrows, she was faithful to believe and trust Jesus. So then, “well done faithful servant. Enter now into the joy of the Lord (Matthew 25:23).

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God” (Matthew 5:8)
