“ I remember the first time I met Sonya. Her and Alma were corralling the sows that had gotten loose across the road. I said "Momma, that is Sonya she is in my class at school!" and we became friends from then on. I can't even go into the vast details of how much fun we had as children, I could literally write a book. Sonya taught me so many things, especially how to be fun, loving and lighthearted and never take anything too seriously. We love you and miss you Sonya. and To Sonya's family, our deepest , sincerest condolences on your loss. - Stephanie, Jason, Alexandra, Hailey, Miss Dianne Kent and Joanna and family
