“ Went to uriah to go hunting for a few days. uncle Dwayne already had the green patch ready for me and bought some corn and taught me how to build a feeder out of a 5 gallon bucket and a peice of PVC pipe. After a couple days of not seeing anything we went riding at night and I shot my first deer out of his truck window (not legal but no don't regret it) .. It was a big buck ,we hauled butt home and went back early the next morning to find a headless Deer . We was so pissed off and upset but that night we drove around listening to music , joking around (uncle D was always the jokester) ,having lots of laughs, seen a lot of deer and even missed a couple lol.. but I will never forget that night .I Love you and will miss you lots uncle Dwayne ..REST IN PEACE

“ Dwayne and i became friends in middle school. He took up for me when this other kid use to pick on me. Thats how we first met and thats something ill never forget. To say he was funny is an understatement. Years would go by then id run into him again always greeted with a hug and that amazing smile. To me my world is not as bright with the loss of such an amazing person. Yes he was amazing and those of yall that truly knew him knew this first and foremost. To the Gollotte family please know my prayers for all yall are steadfast. I pray God gives yall the strength to get through this and remember the good that Dwayne truly was. I will think of him only with smiles. Please know im here and im sooo sorry for your loss. God bless yall. He will be missed by me beyond words
