“Theres acting tough and theres tough as Jean. Mom fought hard for so many years. Throughout her life she was given struggle after struggle. From birth at less than 4 pounds to her last breath at 68 with jeart failure. Her health, family and life in general was tumultuous and eccentric. She loved people and had a soft spot for children and the elderly. She put her faith in God and lived her days as best she could. When I say she fought hard I mean this woman threw down. Absolutely refused to go without a fight. Not because she was afraid but because she didn't want to make me and Pam sad. I will always admire your strength! I need it now more than ever.

“Was a Happy Birthday in 2024. Started by grabbing some flowers and a card. Mom loved flowers! Then off for a haircut. The full works. She wanted it short and out of her face. She looked good and was happy. Next, We went to Smokey's BBQ (her favorite place) for a Openface Turkey melt on garlic toast. A bonus was getting to see her coworkers and laugh about old times. Then on the way home we stopped by winn dixie for a birthday cake (chocolate cake). Ma had a good day. One of the best birthdays she had in a long time. I will cherish the time we had together. She was the best mother and I will miss her so much.

“ Jean, your laugh is contagious. You were always full of laughter. I remember growing up with the whole family how we were almost always laughing about something. It was always a joy to be around you. The trips back and forth from Florida and Louisiana, were always so much fun to spend with my cousins. Now there is no more suffering and no more pain, you can laugh while dancing on those streets of gold. We love you Jean, you will be missed here but we rejoice with you as you rejoice in Heaven.

She had a way of finding the humor in everything. "Better to laugh than cry." She always knew what to say to make me feel better. But this... hard to say the least.

“Sometimes it is the simplest of things that impresses the most. Such was a visit to my aunt Ruby's house during my childhood. It was the 1970's and I was thirsty. My cousin Jean, at my request, proceeded to pour me a glass of coke. Knowing how fast the 'fizz' can rise and watching that cola being poured was indeed one of those 'simple things' I have never forgotten... Jean was able to pour it both continually and without it overflowing the glass until it was full. It amazed me. :-) Fm: "Michael David"
